

Binita Kunwar is a senior lecturer in civil department of National College of Engineering. She has been working as a full time faculty member in this college since November 2017. She completed her Bachelors degree in civil engineering and M.Sc in Geotechnical Engineering from Institute of Engineering, Pulchowk Campus. She has remained girl's topper in IOE entrance examination in 2066 B.S. She has a 15 months of experience of working as a part time geotechnical engineer in various organizations such as ChesCo & Himalaya Geosolutions Pvt. Ltd.

Her teaching subjects include Soil mechanics, Foundation Engineering, Civil Engineering Material and Building Technology. She is actively involved in conducting related lab practicals as well.