

Neeva Dahal is a civil Engineer with extensive experience in transportation related works. She graduated from Kurukshetra University, India with first class honors in B.E. Civil Engineering and pursuing her Master of Engineering degree in Transportation from IOE, Pulchowk Campus.

Miss Dahal began her engineering career as Junior Engineer in OXFAM funded program in 2017 and became senior engineer in 2018. Later she started her academic career as Technical Instructor under Nepal government in 2020. She joined Nepal's most popular engineering institute, National College of Engineering in 2022 and started working as Teaching Assistant and has been working as Lecturer at NCE. She has received 6 days training for Training for Trainers (TOT) provided by Council for Technical Education and Vocational Training (CTEVT) and also, she has received 3 months online training provided by Global Sanitation Graduate School (GSGS) Project at School of Engineering, Kathmandu University in collaboration with IHE-Delft, Netherlands supported by Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation, USA.

www.nce.edu.np